

AI vs. Authentic Image Detection Study

This questionnaire is for my thesis on evaluating the Vulnerabilities and Countermeasures of the Financial Market to Generative AI. Its purpose is to help measure retail investor susceptibility to synthetic media.

You will be given ten pairs of images and ask to identify which one of the two is synthetic. Please select which every image you believe to be AI generated. All responses are anonymous and you will be able to see which images you identified correctly once the questionnaire is completed.
